FUDAN UNIVERSITY

ABOUT US

Fudan University was established in Shanghai in 1905, first known as "Fudan Public School". Mr. Ma Xiangbo, the founder, was a renowned educator at the time, who was hoping to strengthen China through education. Dr. Sun Yat-Sen, the founding father of China, acted as the director of the board of trustees. Since her establishment, Fudan was regarded as a symbol of Chinese seeking enlightenment from Western world. Along the past 110 years, Fudan has been distinguished as the leading globally-focused, research driven university in China. This recognition is reflected by the fact that Fudan has consistently been ranked among the top three universities in China and 51st worldwide according to 2015 QS World University Rankings. Today, Fudan continues her pursuit of excellence and commits to powerful research and education.

OUR STAFF

SOE has attracted best scholars in the fields of economics, finance and public policies in China. There are 133 faculty members, one third of who are holding PhD from top leading institutions of economics and finance in the U.S. and Europe. Four professors are awarded the "Cheungkong Scholars", the most renowned award for professors in China by Chinese government. Our faculty commits to impactful research and some top journals that they published in include American Economic Review, American Political Science Review, Econometrica, Journal of Econometrics, Management Science, International Economic Review, Review of Economic Studies, Journal of Banking & Finance, etc. Apart from powerful research, SOE is active in contributing to policymaking in China and serving society.

THE SCHOOL OF ECONOMICS

The School of Economics (SOE) was established in 1922. As one of the top institutions of economic education and research in China, SOE commits to educating leaders who will make a difference in China and the world. Our distinguished alumni include Dr. Min Zhu, Vice President of IMF, Dr. Shangjin Wei, Chief Economist of the Asian Development Bank, Mr. Guorong Ding, Chairman of Shenyin Wangguo Securities Co. Ltd., and many others. Currently, we have 1,206 undergraduate students and 1,141 graduate students. Our students are from every Chinese province and all over the world. They major in five fields including Economics, Finance, Public Finance and Taxation, Insurance, and Regional Studies.

Summer Camp on Chinese Economy and Society
@ School of Economics, Fudan University

THIRTY-TWO 90-MINUTE LECTURES

CONNECTING YOURSELF TO THE COUNTRY AND KNOWLEDGE YOU NEED

A quick way to know a country is to stay in the country and interact with local people. However, acquiring a deeper understanding of a nation requires more effort. Communicating with the intellectuals in the host country will be the most efficient way to understand a different culture from yours. The two-week summer camp on Chinese economy and society is designed to facilitate knowledge-building in terms of China's business, social, economic and political landscape.

The camp includes thirty-two 90-minute lectures, three company tours and various other activities. The majority of lectures will be delivered by top scholars in relevant research fields from the best universities in Shanghai, including Fudan University, Shanghai Jiao-tong University and Shanghai University of Finance and Economics (SHUFE). These lectures will equip you with a thorough understanding of Chinese economy and society in the past, current and future.

LIFE IN SHANGHAI

Shanghai is a modern city with a long history and a good mix of different cultures. It is a major financial center and window to observe Chinese economic development. Life in Shanghai is exciting and easy to enjoy. There are plenty to explore, including beautiful scenery and landscapes, distinguished architectural buildings that reflect a remarkable history. Food is great and there are plenty of choices.

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES

To unwind yourself on the weekend or do something different after a day of learning, Shanghai is a great city to discover. There are plenty of social activities in Shanghai. For example: rock bands, musical events, dance, movies, pubs, karaoke and other social activities. Shanghai people are very sociable, welcoming and talented. It is quite safe to go out in the evening and easy to travel around.

GETTING AROUND

You will find no trouble to travel around by using the state-of-art transportation networks. Metro is a cheap and easy way to travel. Most trains run from 5.30 am to 10.30 pm. For after hours and locations not near the metro line, taxi is the best way to travel and reasonably cheap.
